

Year-End Index—Volume 7, 1988

A

Albizo, Victoria. "RTFC—Bringing Alternative Financing to Rural Telcos." To a growing number of rural telcos across the country, the Rural Telephone Finance Cooperative means financing. (Summer, no. 3).

B

Bickerstaff, Steve. "Two Looks at the Lone Star; Regulation: Success or Failure." (Summer, no. 3).

Bloomfield, Shirley. "Wooing the Rural Vote." Both Republicans and Democrats are suitors to the vote that in years past has been largely overlooked. (Summer, no. 3).

Brock, Gerald, interview. "Market-Assisted Regulation: A Gradual Set of Changes." (Winter, no. 1).

Brown, Andrew. "Where Do Commercial Companies Fit?" NTCA's commercial company task force presents its preliminary findings. (Winter, no. 1).

C

Canup, Winnie Perilla; and Lehner, J. Christopher. "Competing for the Telco Work Force." (Fall, no. 4).

Chambers, Caroline M.; and Zaina, Lisa M. "Telecommunications: A Walk on the State Side." A review of some of the most crucial issues currently under study by NARUC. (Summer, no. 3).

Cosson, David. "The Intelligent Network and Rural Telcos: Ensuring That the Twain Shall Meet." (Fall, no. 4).

-----, "Zen and the Art of Price Caps." The FCC has proposed a radical shift in the way it regulates the industry. Will it work? (Winter, no. 1).

-----; and Flanigan, Joseph. "The Role of Standards in the Network of the Future." (Spring, no. 2).

-----, "How We Rode a Slippery Slope to a Revolution in the Telephone Industry." (Summer, no. 3).

Crownfield, William R. "International Cooperation." Working together to bring telephone service to the small towns and villages of the Philippines. (Fall, no. 4).

Curtis, Clay; and Segress, Dick. "Four

Heads Are Better Than One: The Advantages of a Central Staff." Small companies can band together to survive the vast and varied changes in the industry. (Spring, no. 2).

D

Dickens, Benjamin H. "ONA and Price Caps: Should the Commission Cap Deregulation Instead?" Given the long-term importance of changes in FCC policy, simple expediency should not win out over accurate regulatory judgments. (Summer, no. 3).

F

Frye, Ralph L. "The Victims of Bypass: The Promoters of Bypass?" The telcos that have fallen victim to the bypass threat posed by state and business networks may also be the same ones developing those networks. (Winter, no. 1).

Fulks, Michael. "Dolores Canyon Telephone: A Success Story." After a 17-year battle to obtain telephone service, a small town in rural Colorado achieves victory. (Spring, no. 2).

G

Gill, Charles B., interview. "The Green Keeper." The president of the RTFC explains a new telco lending source. (Winter, no. 1).

Green, Dave. "Destination: Tokyo." (Fall, no. 4).

H

Hayes, James L. "The End of Crisis Management." Planning helps small businesses move into the future with fewer problems along the way. (Spring, no. 2).

Hirshberg, Janet L. "Taking Care of Business—A Preview of the 1988 NTCA Annual Meeting." (Winter, no. 1).

House, Harry. "Are Your Telco's Insurable Values Up to date?" (Spring, no. 1).

Hudson, Desmond F. "Information Highways: The Road Ahead for Telecommunications." With new technologies and the modern demand for moving data, there are no stop signs ahead for information networks. (Winter, no. 1).

Hutton, C. Roger. "Two Looks at the Lone Star; Regulation: Past and Present." (Summer, no. 3).

J

Jerome, J. Kent. "Iowa Sparks Could Light National Fire" in "State Roundtable 2." (Summer, no. 3).

K

Katseanes, Kathleen. "Mapping Your Telco's Growth," in "TechTalk." (Summer, no. 3).

L

Lavey, Warren G. "The Public Policies Which Changed the Telephone Industry: Lessons From the Past." Amidst debate on the wisdom of open-market competition, lessons from an earlier era should not be overlooked. (Winter, no. 1).

Lehner, J. Christopher, ed. "Taking Care of (a Lot of) Business: NTCA's 34th Annual Meeting." (Spring, no. 2).

-----, "Traversing Tennessee: From the Valley to the Plains." A Washington staffer gets his first opportunity to visit the Volunteer state and discovers anew the quality of life outside the Washington Beltway. (Summer, no. 3).

Lloyd, Ann. "The Rural (Radio) Connection." (Fall, no. 4).

M

Manning, Maxine. "Finding the Right Computer System," in "TechTalk." (Summer, no. 3).

Marks, John. "State Telecommunications Regulation: Success or Failure." An assessment of state regulatory efforts entails: variety, accessibility, and reduced rates for consumers; and flexibility in offerings and pricing for the industry. (Spring, no. 2).

Moore, Leasa. "Political Involvement: Your Chance to Make a Difference." (Summer, no. 3).

N

Norton, Marlee R. "Building Community Relations Through Community Outreach." Because their customers are the community, small and rural telephone companies should forge good community relations. (Spring, no. 2).

P

Precourt, Ronald D. "Grooming Your Staff to Meet the 21st Century: Man-

Year-End Index—Volume 7, 1988

A

Albizo, Victoria. "RTFC—Bringing Alternative Financing to Rural Telcos." To a growing number of rural telcos across the country, the Rural Telephone Finance Cooperative means financing. (Summer, no. 3).

B

Bickerstaff, Steve. "Two Looks at the Lone Star; Regulation: Success or Failure." (Summer, no. 3).

Bloomfield, Shirley. "Wooing the Rural Vote." Both Republicans and Democrats are suitors to the vote that in years past has been largely overlooked. (Summer, no. 3).

Brock, Gerald, interview. "Market-Assisted Regulation: A Gradual Set of Changes." (Winter, no. 1).

Brown, Andrew. "Where Do Commercial Companies Fit?" NTCA's commercial company task force presents its preliminary findings. (Winter, no. 1).

C

Canup, Winnie Perilla; and Lehner, J. Christopher. "Competing for the Telco Work Force." (Fall, no. 4).

Chambers, Caroline M.; and Zaina, Lisa M. "Telecommunications: A Walk on the State Side." A review of some of the most crucial issues currently under study by NARUC. (Summer, no. 3).

Cosson, David. "The Intelligent Network and Rural Telcos: Ensuring That the Twain Shall Meet." (Fall, no. 4).

-----, "Zen and the Art of Price Caps." The FCC has proposed a radical shift in the way it regulates the industry. Will it work? (Winter, no. 1).

-----; and Flanigan, Joseph. "The Role of Standards in the Network of the Future." (Spring, no. 2).

-----, "How We Rode a Slippery Slope to a Revolution in the Telephone Industry." (Summer, no. 3).

Crownfield, William R. "International Cooperation." Working together to bring telephone service to the small towns and villages of the Philippines. (Fall, no. 4).

Curtis, Clay; and Segress, Dick. "Four

Heads Are Better Than One: The Advantages of a Central Staff." Small companies can band together to survive the vast and varied changes in the industry. (Spring, no. 2).

D

Dickens, Benjamin H. "ONA and Price Caps: Should the Commission Cap Deregulation Instead?" Given the long-term importance of changes in FCC policy, simple expediency should not win out over accurate regulatory judgments. (Summer, no. 3).

F

Frye, Ralph L. "The Victims of Bypass: The Promoters of Bypass?" The telcos that have fallen victim to the bypass threat posed by state and business networks may also be the same ones developing those networks. (Winter, no. 1).

Fulks, Michael. "Dolores Canyon Telephone: A Success Story." After a 17-year battle to obtain telephone service, a small town in rural Colorado achieves victory. (Spring, no. 2).

G

Gill, Charles B., interview. "The Green Keeper." The president of the RTFC explains a new telco lending source. (Winter, no. 1).

Green, Dave. "Destination: Tokyo." (Fall, no. 4).

H

Hayes, James L. "The End of Crisis Management." Planning helps small businesses move into the future with fewer problems along the way. (Spring, no. 2).

Hirshberg, Janet L. "Taking Care of Business—A Preview of the 1988 NTCA Annual Meeting." (Winter, no. 1).

House, Harry. "Are Your Telco's Insurable Values Up to date?" (Spring, no. 1).

Hudson, Desmond F. "Information Highways: The Road Ahead for Telecommunications." With new technologies and the modern demand for moving data, there are no stop signs ahead for information networks. (Winter, no. 1).

Hutton, C. Roger. "Two Looks at the Lone Star; Regulation: Past and Present." (Summer, no. 3).

J

Jerome, J. Kent. "Iowa Sparks Could Light National Fire" in "State Roundtable 2." (Summer, no. 3).

K

Katseanes, Kathleen. "Mapping Your Telco's Growth," in "TechTalk." (Summer, no. 3).

L

Lavey, Warren G. "The Public Policies Which Changed the Telephone Industry: Lessons From the Past." Amidst debate on the wisdom of open-market competition, lessons from an earlier era should not be overlooked. (Winter, no. 1).

Lehner, J. Christopher, ed. "Taking Care of (a Lot of) Business: NTCA's 34th Annual Meeting." (Spring, no. 2).

-----, "Traversing Tennessee: From the Valley to the Plains." A Washington staffer gets his first opportunity to visit the Volunteer state and discovers anew the quality of life outside the Washington Beltway. (Summer, no. 3).

Lloyd, Ann. "The Rural (Radio) Connection." (Fall, no. 4).

M

Manning, Maxine. "Finding the Right Computer System," in "TechTalk." (Summer, no. 3).

Marks, John. "State Telecommunications Regulation: Success or Failure." An assessment of state regulatory efforts entails: variety, accessibility, and reduced rates for consumers; and flexibility in offerings and pricing for the industry. (Spring, no. 2).

Moore, Leasa. "Political Involvement: Your Chance to Make a Difference." (Summer, no. 3).

N

Norton, Marlee R. "Building Community Relations Through Community Outreach." Because their customers are the community, small and rural telephone companies should forge good community relations. (Spring, no. 2).

P

Precourt, Ronald D. "Grooming Your Staff to Meet the 21st Century: Management and Training Trends." In the 21st century, more training—in more areas—will be necessary for all rural telco personnel. (Spring, no. 2).

----- "Good Health Is Good Business. Telcos across the country have found that employee assistance programs are not only humane, they are good business." (Summer, no. 3).

----- "Vendor Training." (Fall, no. 4).

Proctor, Stuart. "Are Deregulators Mellowing?—Part II." With new FCC leadership, deregulation appears back on a singularly fast track. (Winter, no. 1).

R

Reser, Gary. "Heavy Legislative Session and Increased Education Efforts Top Kansas Agenda" in "State Roundtable 2." (Summer, no. 3).

"Regulatory Alternatives: A Report by NTIA." The government's telecommunications watchdog feels current regulatory plans leave something to be desired, so it came up with its own. (Winter, no. 1).

Renfro, Jerry A. "Shared Ideas Shape Alabama-Mississippi Future" in "State Roundtable 2." (Summer, no. 3).

Riordan, Ray J. "Long-Range Planning and Unity Spell Wisconsin Success" in "State Roundtable 2." (Summer, no. 3).

S

Sadtler, Susan L. "Telecommunications '88—Who's In Charge?" The executive, legislative, and judicial branches of the government are engaged in a tug-of-war over which will exercise leadership in telecommunications policy. (Spring, no. 2).

----- "NTCA Members Take Price Caps to the Hill." (Fall, no. 4).

Schmidt, Leland W. "Regulation of Local Exchange Carriers in the 1990s." The future of local telco regulation may revolve around how LECs respond to competition. (Winter, no. 1).

Sharkey, Warner. "Radio Is Not Just Cellular: A BETR Way to Reach Remote Subscribers." (Fall, no. 4).

Sherriton-Barnett, Jacalyn. "Developing a High-Performance Staff." To achieve high performance, a manager's success depends on the employee, and vice versa. (Spring, no. 2).

Shifman, Joel B. "ONA: The View from Maine." Determining global answers to the issues raised by ONA could yield harsh results. (Summer, no. 3).

Solarex Pty, Limited; and Telecom Australia. "In Touch in the Outback." (Fall, no. 4).

T

Ting, Ernest S. "Dealing with Risk and Uncertainty in the ONA World." The FCC's simplistic ONA scheme cannot help regulators with the tough investment decisions required by the information age. (Summer, no. 3).

W

Walth, Bruce A. "Streamlining Record Keeping," in "TechTalk." (Summer, no. 3).

Williams, Philip E. "Getting a Step Up on the Big Guys," in "TechTalk." (Summer, no. 3).

GOOD NEWS TRAVELS FAST

People you can count on...
Life Insurance Affiliate:
United of Omaha
Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company
Home Office: Omaha, Nebraska

It doesn't take long for news to get around in today's high-tech world... good news about insurance coverage that helps you face the loss of income a disability can cause, and helps meet escalating health and medical expenses.

And Mutual of Omaha has great news to share with you... a program of protection available for you as a member of NTCA. What's more, you can receive Association Group rates on these plans: Disability Income Protection, Major Medical Coverage, Hospital Medical Coverage and Basic Hospital Plan.

Several plans of life insurance, some at Association Group rates, also are available through Mutual of Omaha's Affiliate, United of Omaha Life Insurance Company.

To get the good news on this fine program, fill in and return the coupon today. A Mutual of Omaha representative will contact you and provide personal service in furnishing full information.

As a member of the NTCA, I would like more information on the plans I've checked below.

☐ Disability Income Protection ☐ Hospital Medical Coverage
☐ Major Medical Coverage ☐ Basic Hospital ☐ Life Plans

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ ZIP Code _____

Phone ( ) _____ Best Time To Call _____

Mail to: Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company, Association Group Dept.,
Mutual of Omaha Plaza, Omaha, NE 68175